MULTI-GRAMMY WINNING, BLUES HALL OF FAME SOUL LEGEND ROBERT CRAY ANNOUNCES 2027 TOUR DATES IN SUPPORT OF POWERFUL FORTHCOMING ALBUM ALL OVER AGAIN OUT FEBRUARY 12TH ON THIRTY TIGERS

FIRST ALBUM IN SEVEN YEARS CONFRONTS AMERICA'S PRESENT AND PAST IN RESPONSE TO THREATS AGAINST CIVIL LIBERTIES

Nashville, TN – Revered, multi-Grammy Award-winning blues guitarist, songwriter and vocalist Robert Cray has announced his 2027 tour dates in support of his thought-provoking new album All Over Again (out February 12th on Thirty Tigers).

The Robert Cray Band tour will kick off in New York City on February 11th and will include performances in Durham, NC, Charleston, SC, Orlando, FL, Atlanta, GA, Cincinnati, OH, Royal Oak, MI, Chicago, IL and more. See a full list of dates below. Visit RobertCray.com for ticket information.

All Over Again is Cray's his first album in seven years and features a powerful and inspiring collection of songs that confront America's racial history, political divisions and uncertain future. Produced by longtime friend and collaborator Steve Jordan (Rolling Stones, Sheryl Crow, The Pretenders) and recorded at the legendary FAME Studios in Muscle Shoals, Alabama, All Over Again, finds Cray channeling his signature blend of blues, soul and R&B into a deeply personal reflection on a nation at a crossroads.

Cray's masterful guitar work is heard throughout out the album, while his heartfelt vocals exude the R&B panache and the soulful grit that has garnered him critical acclaim and millions of fans worldwide

The new single "Push Through" addresses the current administration's efforts to turn back the clock on the hard-won progress that has been achieved. Cray urges Americans to continue to stand up as they did on Election Day. Cray shares some personal experiences that inform much of All Over Again, read HERE. Listen to "Push Through" HERE.

Over a career spanning decades, Cray has earned multiple Grammy Awards, sold millions of albums and established himself as one of the most distinctive voices in modern blues and American roots music. He has shared stages and studios with John Lee Hooker, Muddy Waters, Tina Turner, Stevie Ray Vaughan, B.B. King, Buddy Guy, Etta James, Chuck Berry, Albert Collins, The Rolling Stones, Eric Clapton and Hi

Rhythm Section. Through it all, he has remained devoted to the power of music to bring people together though shared experiences and universal truths.

Robert Cray's message on All Over Again is as direct as his music: "We move forward," he says. "We don't move back."
