Elephant Revival – “Hello You Who”

When a pair of zoo elephants was separated after 16 years together, they died on the very same day. This story gave the members of Elephant Revival their name and reflects the empathy the musicians have for nature and living beings. The five-piece band from Nederland, Colorado plays a combination of what some describe as “gypsy, Celtic, American, and folk.” Their upcoming album, Petals, comes as the band expects another year of touring prized spots like Newport Folk Fest, Bumbershoot, and, for the first time, a headlining date at Red Rocks Amphitheatre. On the album opener “Hello You Who,” a pedal steel accompanies a rhythmic fleet of strings and a beautifully smoky vocal. Petals is out now on United Interests.
