Nashville, TN – Genre-hopping, multi-instrumentalist/vocalist Keller Williams – whose prolific career has spanned more than two decades – is excited to announce his first 3-day event, Keller In The Caverns, featuring Williams' unique musical projects. The event will take place on June 21, 22 and 23, 2019, in one of Tennessee's most remarkable venues, The Caverns, the new home of PBS' Emmy Award-winning show Bluegrass Underground.

Hosting a variety of music artists throughout the year, these underground caves will provide a sublime and surreal setting, making Keller In The Caverns a one-of-a-kind experience unlike anything Williams has done before. With solo performances by Williams, the event will also include sets by Keller Williams' PettyGrass featuring The HillBenders, and his funk ensemble More Than A Little. Williams will then be joined by his Grateful Gospel project, which features guitarist John Kadlecik (Further, Dark Star Orchestra) for a Grateful Gospel Brunch to close out the weekend.

Keller Williams has established himself as a creative visionary, continuing to showcase his unique ability to innovate and evolve over the course of 23 studio albums. Williams recently released his first entirely instrumental album SANS, which features reinvigorated versions of some of his favorite tracks from throughout his career. Keller Williams' unpredictable live shows and ability to seamlessly transition between genres has garnered a large and loyal cult following, as well as praise from press, including Billboard, Entertainment Weekly, Relix, Acoustic Guitar and Paste Magazine, who called SANS "another satisfying addition to Williams's remarkable repertoire."

Both general admission and VIP 3-day passes for Keller In The Caverns will go on-sale on November 17. Fans who have joined Keller Williams' or The Caverns' email lists will receive details about access to pre-sale tickets, available on November 16.
