

ELLE

FEB CALENDAR

◀ LISTEN

Frances Cone's dreamy 2016 breakout track, "Arizona," about lead singer Cristina Cone's discovery of her brother's homosexuality and her subsequent reckoning with her Southern Baptist faith, was a decade in the making. Eleven million listens on Spotify later, "Arizona" serves as the lead single on the indie band's long-awaited second full-length album. Late Riser arrives January 18, not a minute too soon.