"Outside of the Grateful Dead itself, there isn't anyone in the jam scene as prolific as Keller Williams." - Culture Magazine

"Williams inhabits an equal parts entrancing and perplexing center of a Venn diagram that includes...bluegrass, jamgrass, musical humorism, satire, and instrumental prowess that combines flatpicking sensibility with Phil Keaggy-style ingenuity."
– The Bluegrass Situation

Nashville, TN – With a prolific career spanning 23 studio records and numerous live recordings, Keller Williams has announced the release of his new album, Add, on May 31. The follow up to his 2018 entirely instrumental release, SANS, Add sees Williams now adding vocals back into both new and previously unrecorded songs, as well as his own versions of "Brave Captain" by Firehose and Joni Mitchell's "All I Want". Of the first single titled "The Big One" Williams says, "I'm excited for 'The Big One' to see the light of day, as it's had tons of stage time and no real place on any of my last few releases." Listen to the track HERE.

Continuously evolving as an artist over the last two decades, Add showcases Williams' masterful penchant for innovation and his impressive level of musicianship. Performing on vocals, acoustic and bass guitars, keys, percussion and upright bass, Williams has also injected the record with various drum samples and deep vocal bass effects to create a truly unique sound. Add was co-produced, recorded and mixed by Jeff Covert in Fredericksburg, Virginia, and will be released both digitally and on vinyl, with a very limited amount of CDs also available for purchase.
