

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

SEPTEMBER 2020

JONATHAN WILSON TO RELEASE DIXIE BLUR: DIGITAL DELUXE EDITION ON OCTOBER 30th FEATURING B-SIDES & ACOUSTIC VERSIONS OF SONGS FROM THE CRITICALLY ACCLAIMED ALBUM

EL CAMINO REAL EP RELEASED DIGITALLY TODAY

"Wilson's return to his southern roots drips with feel and flavour...His most potent release to date." ★★★★- MOJO

Nashville, TN – Acclaimed artist, multi-instrumentalist and producer Jonathan Wilson has announced the October 30th release of Dixie Blur: Digital Deluxe Edition. The deluxe version of Wilson's critically praised album will be released digitally and features three sides of music, including the full Dixie Blur album, unreleased B-sides and acoustic renditions of some of the album tracks. See track listing below.

"Jonathan Wilson's 'Dixie Blur' is the somber yet comforting album you need right now"
– Rolling Stone Country

Dixie Blur was recorded in Nashville and released on March 6, 2020 via BMG/Bella Union, just when the initial impact of the pandemic fully hit and tours were halted. The album is Wilson's most fully realized work to date, and the press agreed with features and coverage running in Rolling Stone Country, Variety, Relix, Associated Press, Billboard, Paste, American Songwriter, No Depression and much more (See Highlights).

"Dixie Blur" is a tuneful display of Wilson's songwriting chops...[he] has never sounded better than on this record." - No Depression

The multi-talented artist went to Nashville to record live in the studio with Wilco's Pat Sansone as co-producer and some of Music City's finest players. The most compelling behind the scenes story is how Wilson convinced the legendary Mark O'Connor, who many consider the greatest living fiddle player, to play on the album. The multi-Grammy, multi-CMA Musician Of The Year has not played on a session since 1990 but chose to take part as long as the sessions were recorded live. The story of the unlikely collaboration is told by Wilson and O'Connor in this short clip that includes in-studio footage and portions of an interview with World Café's Raina Douris (View here).

"Dixie Blur" is an excellent, wonderfully understated effort from Wilson, who digs into new depths of emotion..." – The Associated Press

While awaiting the arrival of Dixie Blur: Deluxe Edition, fans can enjoy the El Camino Real EP, released digitally today. The EP is comprised of six tracks, three of which feature Mark O'Connor. The El Camino Real EP is now available at all DSPs.

“...his strongest and most affecting to date, but also destined to end up on year-end best-of lists. It’s that good.” - LA Weekly

For press information about Jonathan Wilson, please contact
Jim Flammia jim@alleyesmedia.com or Conner McKiever conner@alleyesmedia.com at All Eyes Media (615) 227-2770

Visit SongsOfJonathanWilson.com for news and updates

Dixie Blur: Deluxe Edition
(digital only release out October 30th)

Side A (Full Album)

- “Just For Love”
- “69 Corvette”
- “New Home”
- “So Alive”
- “In Heaven Making Love”
- “Oh Girl”
- “Pirate”
- “Enemies”
- “Fun For The Masses”
- “Platform”
- “Riding The Blinds”
- “El Camino Real”
- “Golden Apple”
- “Korean Tea”

Side B (B-Sides)

- “Baby You’re A Star”
- “Simple Thing”
- “Woods Are Greener”
- “Demon”
- “None But Us”

Side C (Acoustic)

- “Enemies”
- “Golden Apples”
- “Fun for the Masses”
- “69 Corvette”

El Camino Real* EP
(Released Today)

- “El Camino Real” (feat. Mark O’Connor)
- “The Woods Are Greener” (feat. Mark O’Connor)
- “Pirate” (feat. Mark O’Connor)
- “Platform”
- “Demon”
- “None But Us”