CELEBRATED DUO SHOVELS & ROPE ANNOUNCE FALL TOUR IN SUPPORT OF THEIR CRITICALLY ACCLAIMED NEW ALBUM *MANTICORE

“The new 10-tune set rivals their best work...” – Associated Press

“...brims with the boundless ambition of two people still striving to make each release a masterpiece.” – American Songwriter

“Shovels & Rope are becoming masters at emoting over simple narratives that make their words sound even more profound... it’s just as intense musically as it is emotionally.” – Relix

Nashville, TN – Acclaimed rock duo Shovels & Rope announces a fall tour in support of their critically acclaimed new album Manticore. The tour will begin in Tomball, TX on October 13th and will see the Charleston, SC-based couple performing throughout the Southwest, West Coast and Midwest before heading to the Southeast to wrap things up in Athens, GA on November 10th. Stops include Phoenix, Los Angeles, San Francisco, Seattle, Bozeman, MT, New Orleans and Birmingham.

Manticore is the most personal and revealing album from Cary Ann Hearst and Michael Trent to date. Following its February release, the album received high praise from the press including The Associated Press, Rolling Stone Country, Relix, No Depression, Atwood Magazine, Magnet, American Songwriter, Glide, The Boot and much more (See Highlights). Shovels & Rope was also featured in a segment on NPR's Here & Now.

Last month, the award-winning band released the lighthearted video for their song “The Show,” which featured the duo in a choreographed dance routine to both the surprise and delight of their fans. Watch “The Show” HERE.
