"...the story arc LeBlanc has stitched into the songs never gets in the way of sheer enjoyment of the tunes he's created. Grand concepts are a tricky move for any artist, but LeBlanc pulls it off with aplomb."* MOJO 4 star review

Nashville, TN – Today, celebrated singer/songwriter/multi-instrumentalist Dylan LeBlanc announces 2024 U.S. tour dates supporting his anticipated new album Coyote, out October 20th via ATO Records. Shows begin January 17th in New Orleans, and tickets go on-sale at 10:00am local time on October 20th. For a full list of dates and to purchase, go to LeBlanc's website HERE. LeBlanc is currently headed to Europe for a full tour through December 2023.

LeBlanc is also releasing "The Crowd Goes Wild" today, the latest track from Coyote. "The Crowd Goes Wild" follows last single "Coyote" which has earned spots on key playlists such as Spotify's Indie Pop, All New Indie, Fresh Folk and many more. Watch "The Crowd Goes Wild" video HERE, listen via DSPs HERE and pre-order Coyote HERE.

Coyote is a semi-autobiographical concept album centered on the character of Coyote, a man on the run from his past. On "The Crowd Goes Wild" LeBlanc looks outside Coyote's individual journey to explore schadenfreude and how people throughout time derive pleasure from another's misfortune. LeBlanc claims, "This song zooms out of the story and explains how people have a love affair with seeing their fellow man get torn apart. It also underscores how the system is designed and rigged against those less fortunate and how hard it is to escape poor circumstances, such as those of Coyote."

Coyote was produced by LeBlanc and recorded at the legendary FAME Studios in Muscle Shoals, AL, the area where he watched his father perform and began his own career. His rich lyrics reflect the wisdom and endurance of a tough childhood spent between Texas, Louisiana, and Alabama. But while he has experienced hardships, LeBlanc is an example of how beauty comes from perseverance. His tenacity has paid off in spades, leading him to a record deal with ATO Records, releasing the critically acclaimed Renegade in 2019, and now Coyote, which LeBlanc says is “the record he has always wanted to make.”

Praise for LeBlanc includes:

"Dylan LeBlanc is a songwriter of uncommon grace and power." – NPR Music

"LeBlanc's music is a raw and honest exploration of the human condition." - Rolling Stone

"One of modern country's most interesting voices, in both senses of the term." – UNCUT

"...sublime voice and evocative songwriting." – Nashville Scene
