Nashville, TN – My Second Last Album, the highly anticipated new recording from celebrated Canadian artist Bahamas (a.k.a. Afie Jurvanen), is out today on Brushfire Records. Following 2023’s highly praised classic country inspired album Bootcut, the award-winning, singer/songwriter/guitarist returns with a warm, thoughtful and genre-blending collection that encapsulates the Bahamas style fans worldwide have come to love.

Bahamas has just released the soulful, self-aware new single “Feels So Good.” The narrator wrestles with the balance between discipline and indulgence while also questioning ambition and purpose. Beneath the track’s relaxed groove lies an internal struggle to not give in to one’s own impulses — because sometimes, doing it on your own just simply feels so good. After recording Bootcut in Nashville, Jurvanen simplified the process and stayed home in Nova Scotia, where he casually recorded with no agenda. He teamed up with co-producer and multi-instrumentalist Joshua Van Tassel at his intimate DreamDate Studio, a backyard shed barely big enough to accommodate two musicians. The two played every instrument and allowed themselves the freedom to follow Jurvanen’s songs wherever they lead.

After two decades in Toronto, Jurvanen relocated with his family to rural Nova Scotia for a simpler life. The lifestyle shift permeates the album’s tone. Jurvanen explores life as a father (“Only Inspiration”), husband (“Shadows”), immigrant’s son (“In Country”) and an ever-evolving human (“Ready For A New Thing”). My Second Last Album is a standout addition to Bahamas’ beloved catalogue

Through the release of six albums, Bahamas has garnered a passionate fanbase in North America and overseas. Bahamas’ biggest streaming track “Lost In The Light” has garnered close to 230 million plays, while “All The Time” has over 130 million. 2020’s Sad Hunk won the Juno Award for Adult Alternative Album of the Year. Bahamas has appeared on Jimmy Kimmel Live, CBS Saturday Morning, and The Late Show with Stephen Colbert’s “PlayAtHome” series.
