

DYLAN, CASH & THE NASHVILLE CATS: A NEW MUSIC CITY THE JOHNNY CASH SHOW - TV SERIES

From 1969-1970, ABC's The Johnny Cash Show was taped in front of a live audience at the legendary Ryman Auditorium in Nashville, TN, home of the Grand Ole Opry. While the show hosted many popular artists of the day in country and other genres, the program broke all the rules of television as Cash wanted to book cutting edge, socially conscious and controversial artists, much to the ire of TV executives. As much as he was a trailblazer in music, he blazed an important trail in television as well by opening up doors that were previously closed.
